

Amalfi ☐ Meeting Point

15 Step · find.amalfi.day

Step 1 of 15

You've just arrived at the Amalfi ferry port. Climb the short flight of stairs from the dock — you'll see the 'Porto di Amalfi' sign pointing the way up.

Step 2 of 15

You're now on the Amalfi harbor promenade, just a few steps from the bus stop. Looking ahead, this is the direction you need to go. Don't walk back toward the sea — there's only a lighthouse behind you.

Step 3 of 15

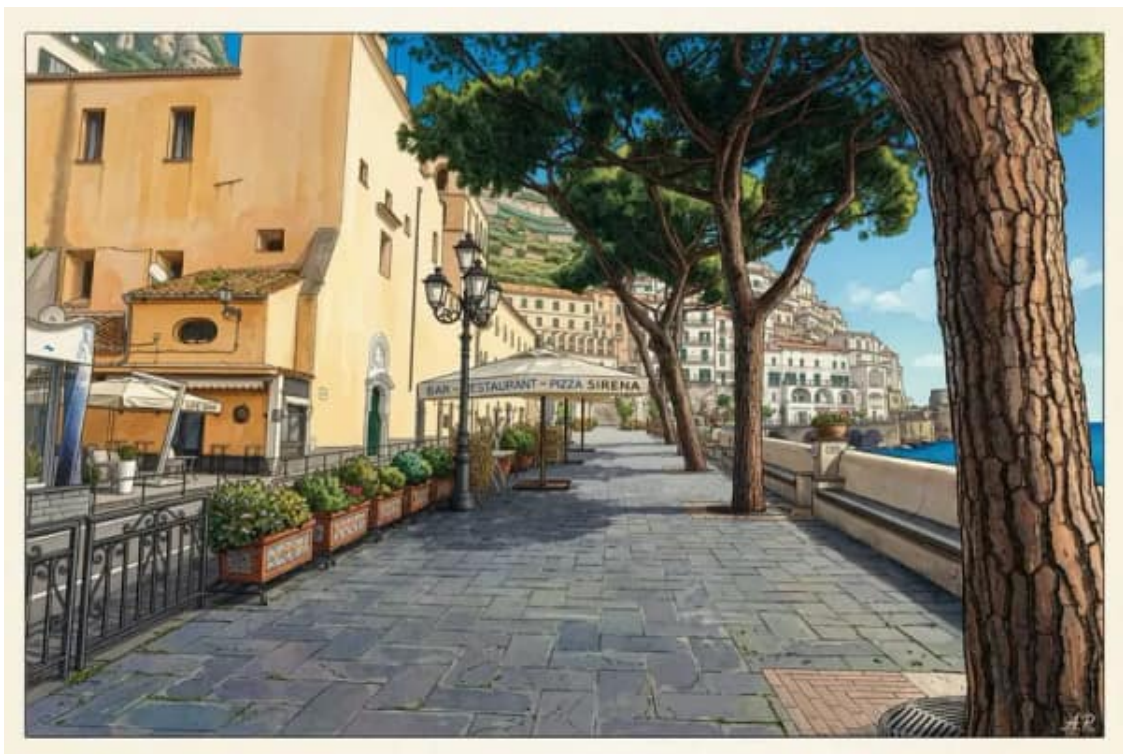

Walk along the Amalfi promenade. The bus stop is just a short walk ahead.

Step 4 of 15

This is the Amalfi bus stop. Buses from Salerno, Sorrento, Agerola, and other Amalfi Coast towns stop here, so it's always busy. From this point, head quickly in the direction shown.

Step 5 of 15

Continue along the coastal promenade. You'll pass several beautiful restaurants with stunning sea views.

Step 6 of 15

This is your turn. If you keep going straight, you'll eventually reach Atrani too — but I strongly recommend turning left here. It's the shorter, safer route.

Step 7 of 15

Cross the pedestrian crossing and turn left. You'll reach Café Déjà Vu, and next to it there's a tunnel. This tunnel is the shortest, safest, and fastest way to Atrani.

Step 8 of 15

Here you can see Café Déjà Vu on the left, and to the right of it — the tunnel to Atrani. Walk straight in.

Step 9 of 15

As you enter the tunnel, you'll see gates directly ahead. They're usually open during the day — it's a path to the town cemetery. You don't need to go through them, just keep walking along the tunnel.

Step 10 of 15

Continue through the tunnel. You can see light from the exit up ahead.

Step 11 of 15

Just before the exit, you'll notice a public restroom on the right side and the exit from a parking garage.

Step 12 of 15

You've exited the tunnel. On the left is the Luna Rossa parking entrance, and on the right the road continues toward Atrani.

Step 13 of 15

Keep walking straight along the road. You're heading toward Atrani now.

You are now entering Atrani

Step 14 of 15

At the tunnel exit, you'll see the road leading into Atrani with directional signs ahead.

This is the meeting point! You've arrived. Look for Greg nearby.

You've reached the Meeting Point!

Welcome! Look for Greg nearby.