

Amalfi ▯ Greg's House

33 Step · find.amalfi.day

Step 1 of 33

You've just arrived at the Amalfi ferry port. Climb the short flight of stairs from the dock — you'll see the 'Porto di Amalfi' sign pointing the way up.

Step 2 of 33

You're now on the Amalfi harbor promenade, just a few steps from the bus stop. Looking ahead, this is the direction you need to go. Don't walk back toward the sea — there's only a lighthouse behind you.

Step 3 of 33

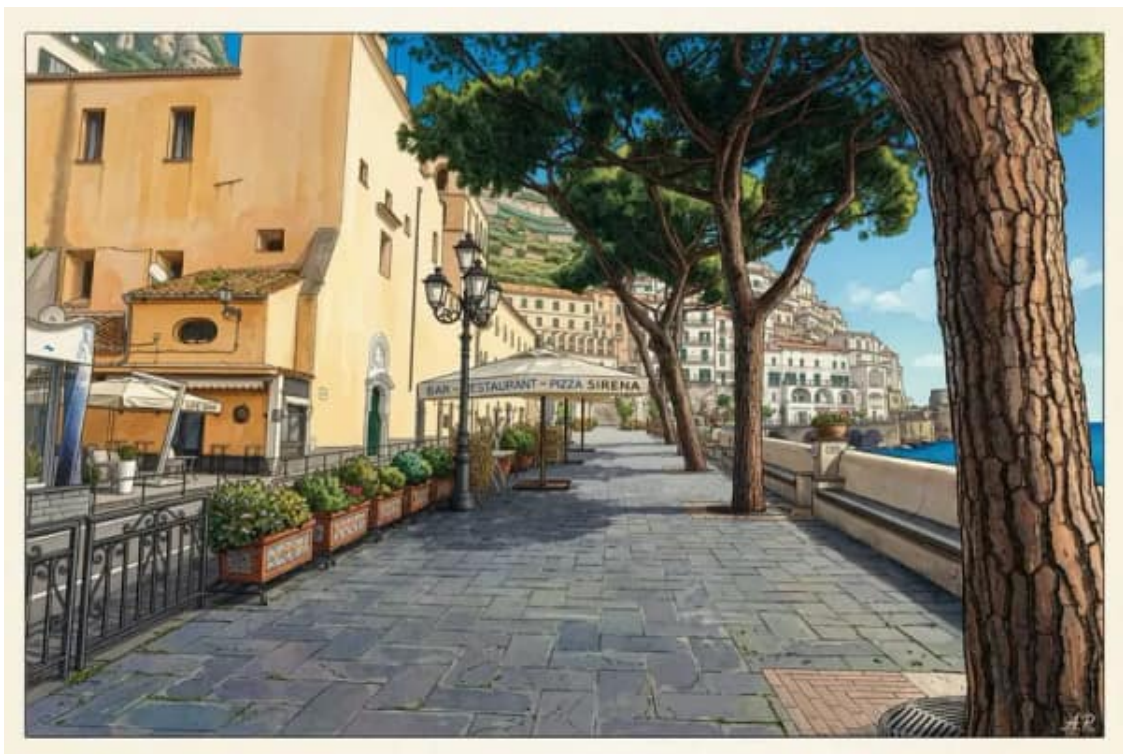

Walk along the Amalfi promenade. The bus stop is just a short walk ahead.

Step 4 of 33

This is the Amalfi bus stop. Buses from Salerno, Sorrento, Agerola, and other Amalfi Coast towns stop here, so it's always busy. From this point, head quickly in the direction shown.

Step 5 of 33

Continue along the coastal promenade. You'll pass several beautiful restaurants with stunning sea views.

Step 6 of 33

This is your turn. If you keep going straight, you'll eventually reach Atrani too — but I strongly recommend turning left here. It's the shorter, safer route.

Step 7 of 33

Cross the pedestrian crossing and turn left. You'll reach Café Déjà Vu, and next to it there's a tunnel. This tunnel is the shortest, safest, and fastest way to Atrani.

Step 8 of 33

Here you can see Café Déjà Vu on the left, and to the right of it — the tunnel to Atrani. Walk straight in.

Step 9 of 33

As you enter the tunnel, you'll see gates directly ahead. They're usually open during the day — it's a path to the town cemetery. You don't need to go through them, just keep walking along the tunnel.

Step 10 of 33

Continue through the tunnel. You can see light from the exit up ahead.

Step 11 of 33

Just before the exit, you'll notice a public restroom on the right side and the exit from a parking garage.

Step 12 of 33

You've exited the tunnel. On the left is the Luna Rossa parking entrance, and on the right the road continues toward Atrani.

Step 13 of 33

Keep walking straight along the road. You're heading toward Atrani now.

You are now entering Atrani

Step 14 of 33

You're in Atrani! Right before the next tunnel, turn right and walk through the restaurant area. You'll see Zaccaria Ristorante on your right.

Step 15 of 33

Walk through the restaurant terrace — almost everyone takes this path. It's a beautiful spot on the cliff with amazing sea views. Keep going and start heading down the stairs.

Step 16 of 33

Descend the stairs — it's just about two floors down.

Step 17 of 33

Keep following the road as it takes you gently downhill.

Step 18 of 33

You're practically in Atrani now. Just keep walking along the road.

Step 19 of 33

Walk down to the parking area and continue straight ahead. Head into the first arch you see.

Step 20 of 33

In the first arch, you'll find a tunnel passage. Walk straight through it.

Step 21 of 33

Walk through the tunnel and continue straight.

Step 22 of 33

As you exit, you'll see the main church of Atrani — San Salvatore de' Birecto — with its clock tower and town hall. Great photo spot! The town square is to the right, cafés and restaurants to the left.

Step 23 of 33

Go straight into the next tunnel passage. You'll see shops on the left and a fish shop on the right. Keep walking straight through.

Step 24 of 33

Walk until you reach the large inscription on the wall. Continue slightly uphill — you're only about 50 meters away now.

Step 25 of 33

Your next landmark is Ristorante A' Paranza. Don't be surprised — it's one of the most exclusive and delicious restaurants in town. Just keep walking straight past it.

Step 26 of 33

Continue just a bit further past the restaurant.

Step 27 of 33

Look for the fruit shop — it may be open with fruit displayed outside, or closed with brown doors. Right past it you'll see a small green door and immediately a very narrow turn to the right. Don't miss it!

Step 28 of 33

Here's the very narrow turn to the right — you must go in here! If the Amalfi Porters drop you off, you'll be right across from the fruit shop. This is exactly where you need to turn.

Step 29 of 33

Enter the small gallery tunnel. You'll see a green door ahead — turn right immediately from it.

Step 30 of 33

Walk through this narrow tunnel toward the light at the end.

Step 31 of 33

Right in front of you are about 10 steps. Climb up — there's a green door on the left.

Step 32 of 33

This is the view after you climb the steps — you're right at our house!

Walk to the green door. You'll see a doorbell on the left — press it and we'll come meet you right away. Welcome, you've arrived!

Welcome to Greg's House!

You've made it! Please ring the doorbell on the left — we'll see you right away.
